three months, in advance,

VOL. 24.

WILMINGTON, N. C., FRIDAY MORNING, DECEMBER 27, 1867.

NO. 46.

RATES OF ADVERTISING 1 square, of 10 lines or less, for each and every

Special Notices will be charged $200 per square

All Obituaries and private publications of every

As No advertisement, reflecting upon private character, car, under ANY CHECUMSTANCES, 1e

be sure, but what could he say? Woy, nought, and nought do. He looked around him for a minute to make sure he wasn't dreamin', an us stood a waitin' to hear

"That's fer mine, Mr. Smith," he added, looks to me as if he had a story in his eye,

Mrs. Goss more than ever; and about a now, for it soon became known that Newt

"About five years after the marriage,

Nothing having ever been heard from the first Mrs. Newt, the other one-the Goss ry large. She was a large, handsome wo-

"But one fine day who should turn up again at Turkey Neck but Mrs. Newt the woman did when she found she had been ousted from her clover patch? Did she sit down and cry? Did she go back to her old

"The jury thought that was a pretty her out of her pay for services performed.

They allowed her at the rate of four dollars

a week for the whole term of five years, and mother said it was generally believed

"That is a queer sounding story, young

And now the curiosity to hear about the

"The man who married a man," said he,

Boldness in Women,

unnatural. It may seem fine to a young woman to have a great spirit, to despise

ing;" but that young woman who entertains acter better than any man who ever lived before his time or since, describes a lovely woman in the description of her voice,

Boldness in women is unseemingly and man," said Mr. Smith, "but I happen to character, are charged as advertisements.

for each and every insertion.

" DOLCE FAR NIENTE." SPECIAL NOTICE.

3 00

GENTLEMAN who suffered for years from Nervous Debility, Premature Decay and he effects of youthful indiscretion, will, for the sake of suffering humanity, send free to al who need it, the receipt and directions for making the simple remedy by which he was cared. Suf

SEINES AND NET TWINES.

LEADS AND NET FITTINGS.

MALE ACADEMY,

CLINTON, N. C.

THE EXERCISES OF THIS SCHOOL WILL

into twenty weeks. It is the determination of Board can be procured on reasonable terms.

RATES OF TUITION.

- HIGH SCHOOL,

CLASSICAL AND PRACTICAL,

STRICT DISCIPLINE

Princip'ls.

Mt. Verson Springs, Chatham Co., N, C

Ample accommodations for 100 pupils.

Turriox $10 to $24, one half in advance.

PARENTS wishing to give their children a

A. J. EMERSON,

R. S. ANDREWS,

RALEIGH, N. C., Nov. 23, 1867.

known their intent on or before the

T. H. SELBY,

J. T. MELVIN, Clerk and Master in Equity.

Surviving Partner.

Fire Insurance Company.

HANCE COMPANY, and, at the last term of the said Court, a decree was made appointing me

Receiver of all the assets of the said Company and, in pursuance of said decree, notice is hereb given to all the creditors of said Company, who are willing to contribute to the expense of said

FOURTH MONDAY IN MARCH, 186., and prove their claims before the subscriber; otherwise they will be execuded from sharing in the distribution

FOR SALE.

WHE BE SOLD BY THE CLERK

January, 1868, at Council's Bluff, N. C., all the lands belonging to the late firm of Parmalee & Dewey, consisting of Turpentine and Farm-

Storenouse, Warehouse, Cooper shops, Sheds.

Dwelling houses, two Turpentine Distilleries (20 bbls, capacity each.) The above place is one of the best stands for turpentine and merchandizing against it present them at once for settlement. CHARLES PARMELEE,

Changes in the Meaning of Words,

"miscreant," in agreement with its etymol-

C.v. was a misbeliever-one who did not believe rightly the articles of the Catholic faith; and it need not be told that this was the constant charge which the English

Mr. Davis' Visit to the Eastern Shore.

The Hon. Jefferson Davis visited Talbot county

last week, in company with Charles Howard, Esq.

of Baltimore, and stopped with Colonel Edward Lloyd, the son-in-law of Mr. Howard. It was his irst visit to the Eastern Shore, and he expressed himself much pleased with the country. While sojourning at Col. Lloyd's, he was called upon by a number of ladies and gentlemen of this and the adjoining counties, among whom were several of chanan, and a number of our citizens availed themselves of the Admiral's hospitable invitation, somewhat gray, but looked quite well and appeared cheerful. He returned to Baltimore on Mon-will spend the winter.

The Easton (Maryland) Star, of Tuesday,

Harness, Blacksmith Tools, &c.

I the assets of the Company.

ant, if they desire to do so.

CREDITOR'S BILL WAS FILED IN THE

Court of Equity of Wake County against ORTH CABOLINA MUTUAL FIRE INSU-

EXPERIENCED TEACHERS.

MUSIC ON THE PIANO $25.

HOARD $9 per month in advance.

he FIRST MONDAY in January, 1868.

English Branches......$17 50

the 2d Monday of January next, and con-

H. & G. W. LORD.

89 Commercial Street,

Boston, Mass.

ERRORS OF YOUTH.

Straw-hatted on the shining sand, laters wishing to profit by the advertiser's expe-With bronzing chest, and arms, and handrience can do so by addressing, in perfect confidence.

JOHN B. OGDEN, Beneath the blue Italian sky. No. 42 Cedar st., New York. There with the mountains idly glassing Their purple splendors in the sea-To watch the white-winged vessels passing,

This were a heaven to you and me. ROPE, CORKS, BUOYS, Our meerschaums coloring cloudy brown, of every description, manufactured and for sale Two young girls coloring with a blush, The blue wave with a silver crown, The mountain shadows dropping down: And all the air in perfect hush;

(Fortunes for busier fools amassing),

My friend, my chum, my trusty crony We were designed, it seems to me,

From dawn to eve in the happy land,

To be two happy lazzaroni, On sunshine fed and macaroni,

Far off by some Sicilian sea.

No duty for us but to lie-

Thus should we lie in the happy land, Nor fame, nor power, nor fortune miss Straw-hatted on the shining sand, With bronzing chest, and arm, and hand— Two loafers couched in peaceful bliss!

STATE NEWS.

he undersigned to make this School worthy of atronage, and one in which boys may be well THE UNIVERSITY.—The Trustees of the ared for College, or for the usual avocations University, after a protracted meeting ad-A mild but firm discipline will be exercised. Chirton, in point of morality, Church advantages, intelligence, taste, style and healthfulness, will journed on yesterday. Very important got into the house. We also learn that Mr. pleasure.—Tarboro' Southerner. business was transacted, which will meet sampare very favorably with any other inland the approval, we trust, of the friends of the form in the State, and is, therefore, a suitable

It was decided to make a radical change in the course of instruction, by adopting the plan of independent schools, called by some the "University system."

No deduction except in cases of sickness pro-tracted beyond two weeks.

M. McLEOD, Much more prominence is given to English studies and the Natural Sciences, while the classics and mathematics are allowed their due weight. We will take pleasure in laying before our readers the report of the committee appointed to frame the scheme, and also the leading features of the hear of their capture. AND FEMALE,

It was found impossible to put the new scheme into operation in the middle of the Collegiate year. Hence it will go into op-MOST ELIGIBLE LOCATION; SCHOOL IN of the next year. At that time a President and Professors will be elected to fill the va-

In the meantime President Swain and the other members of the Faculty are requested and will consent to remain at their posts during the next session, while Prof. W. C. Kerr. State Geologist, with the ad-THOSOUGH EDUCATION without unnecessary expease, and at the same time preserve their health, vice and consent of the Board of Literature, will give a complete course of Lec-PUPILS are taught Vocal Music without extra tures in Chemistry, Mineralogy and Geology to the Senior Class. The chair of THE NEXT TERM of 20 weeks will commence on Metaphysics will be temporarily filled by the Executive Committee. An address will be issued to the people of the State by that

The Trustees are determined that the Office of the North Carolina Mutual University shall be all that such an institution ought to be, and for one we say God speed.—Ral. Sentinel, 19th.

> CAPT. JOHN S. MIDDLETON. -The death of this venerable and popular "old salt is announced in the Norfolk papers. The people of all the Northeast counties will remember him as the universally beloved commander of the steamer Fox and others. running from Blackwater to Plymouth and Edenton, for many years. Raleigh Sentinel, 19th.

AGRICULTURAL SOCIETY OF CHAPEL HILL. These who have already proved their claims need not furnish additional proof, but must sig-We are officially requested to announce may their intention to become parties to the said that the next meeting of the "Chapel Hill Nutice is hereby given to all persons indebted Agricultural Society" will take place at to the Company, by assessment as heretofore that village on Saturday, Dec. 28th, at 11 notified, to make payment without delay, or their o'clock A. M. Hon. W. H. Battle by inclaims under the decree of the Court will be put vitation will deliver an address on the oceasion. Several matters of importance will come up for consideration. Farmer and the public generally are respectfully requested to attend. Raleigh Sentinel, 19th inst. JUDGE BUXTON.-We are glad to see back at home his Honor, Judge R. P. Buxton, who has been for the past two or three ing lands, valuable landing on the Cape Fear liver, known as Council's Bluff, together with months absent on his judicial circuit in the in good health. Judge Buxton holds the special term of

Monday, January 6th. After the above sale, I shall sell all the PER Judge Barnes will hold the special term

ISHABLE PROPERTY unsold on day of sale of Cumberland county Superior Court on consisting of Mules, Wagons, Buggy, Cart, Cart Monday, January 27th. All persons indebted to the estate will make im Fayetteville News, 17th. mediate payment, and persons having claims

ANOTHER MURDER-THE MURDERER KILL-

ED BY A SMALL BOY. - Night before last three negroes went to the residence of Mr. Neuse to Trent, and while two of them re- sary-more anon. During part of the seventeenth century mained outside, one named Ben Carmer. and earlier, a Dutchman meant a German, went inside, and finding no one there but Mynheer being called a Hollander. A Mr. P. Bratcher, demanded what money modern reader, ignorant of this change, there was in the house, and immewhen he found a dictionary-compiler prodiately seized him; Mr. B. also seized the nouncing English based on Dutch, might negro when a violent struggle ensued. The be ant to doubt the author's fitness as a negro managing to free himself, drew a adge of language. Less technical writers pistol and firing twice at Bratcher woundsuffer from the changes in the meaning of ed him mortally in the abdomen and right mere common words; and a reader, not arm. A small boy living with Mr. Doughiaware of the changes which have taken place, may be in continued danger of mis-reached quickly behind the door of the his intention, while he has no doubt what-ever that he is no doubt whatever that he is perfectly apprehending and instantly. The negroes outside ran, and ap to this time have not been caught. It Thus, when Skakspeare in Henry IV. is perhaps proper to state here that Mr. makes the noble "Talbot" address "Joan Doughity was absent from his home at the of Arc" as a "miscreant," how coarse a time of the murder. piece of invective does this sound! How

It is a significant fact that more murders unlike to that which the chivalrous soldier and other crimes are committed in the viwould have uttered, or to that which cinity of Newbern than in any other part Shakspeare, even with his unworthy esti- of the State, that nearly all of them are mate of the noble warrior maid, would committed by negroes and that the Radical have put into "Talbot's" mouth! But a influence is stronger here than any where "miscreant" in Shakspeare's time had no- else in the State. thing of the meaning which it now has. A

New Berne Jour, of Com., 20th. DANIEL THOMPSON. - We are now able to brought against Joan, namely, that she was Deaf, the Dumb and the Blind, who after a dealer in hidden magic arts, a witch, and hearing of the case, had the young man half of his snack, he remarked to the gen-tleman, that he was very sick; in a few mo-ments he turned very dark and soon fell his old classmates at West Point. On Friday he lunched with his old friend, Admiral Franklin Bu chanan, and a number of our citizens availed from his seat in a severe fit. All was done of whiskey, that bane of society which Gronse are for him that could be, but he continued causes more trouble to individuals and to and called to see him. The occasion was one of speechless and to have spasms until the society at large, than all other causes put rare pleasure to all present. Mr. Davis has grown train arrived here on Sunday morning. - together. The Railroad Agent had him taken from We say to all, beware of the bottle, day, and will soon leave for Mississippi, where he the cars, and, we learn, dispatched messen- in it there is crime, the halter, hell and ceive the message or hear of the case ORDERED AWAY. - In accordance with a until he was removed. In the meantime, recent order from Gen. Canby, which we Dr. Smith, the Surgeon of the Military publish to-day, the garrison stationed at RECOGNITION OF GENERAL HANCOCK'S AD down and took him in his ambu- this place since May last, Co K, 8th U. S. lance and carried him to the hospital Infantry, is ordered off and will probably The President sent the following message and kindly did all in his power, but to be removed in a few days. Col. M. Cogs- to Congress on the 18th instant :

some distance from the Rainoad.

Raleigh Sentinel, 20th. THE MURDER. - From Sheriff Fleming time of the murder, and that Bratcher demands made upon him. Dougherty (at whose house Mr. B. was killed) had come into this city that day, and sold a considerable amount of pro- Gloom and Despondency of the Southduce, and was within a few hundred yards of his house at the time of the murder.

It is very probable that there is an organized gang in this vicinity, and that this attempt was made in consequence of information received from the city, of Mr. Dougherty's having left the city with quite eyes open for these fellows. Sheriff Flem- tion and experience in this State. A wide-

New Berne Journal of Commerce 21st. BOLD ATTEMPT AT ROBBERY.-Last night finding one of the negroes in the store, waste places of the farmer. Nor is this laid down their lives. But this distin- by it." before assistance could come.

Look sharp for frequent bold attempts dering about, ostensibly in quest of work, of a similar character, which may not al- but in reality seeking whom and what ways prove so harmless.

New Berne Journal of Commerce, 21st. St. John's College.—We learn that this magnificent school edifice, erected at Ox- of heir deeds of darkness and blood, ford, just prior to the late war, by the Maof $35,000, was sold on Thursday last to Messrs. R. W. Best, John Nichols, and others, committee of the Grand Lodge, for defend and encourage them in their dia about $7,000. The citizens of Oxford subscribed very liberally to raise the amount necessary to relieve the College from debt. Raleigh Sentinel 21st

ALMOST A MURDER. -On Thursday night last about seven o'clock some person with diabolic intent knocked at the door of J. Webber, who keeps a bakery in this place. Mr. W. thinking that it was some one desirous of purchasing bread or some other the man asking him if he had bread to sell, ferreting out if possible the guilty parties, inflicted a blow upon the head of the unfloor. About this time, as we have been his hogs had been slaughtered. Following informed, some one passed by the premises, the trail of foot-prints and traces of blood, Bladen county Superior Court, which met clue as to the perpetrator of this foul and ton; the cabin was scarched and por-Bladen county Superior Court, which met clue as to the perpetrator of this foul and on yesterday; also, of Halifax county, on infamous deed, but suspicion rests upon tions of a newly killed hog were found to a new how to a new certain parties, and we do sincerely hope concealed in the old woman's bed.— pressed with these views, the General announces that our authorities will be able to ferret She stated to the magistrate that her son that the great principles of American liberty still scoundrels to merited justice.

Mr. Webber's wound, we understand, was a very severe one-but will recover. Since the above was written certain facts guilt, he was indicted for hog stealing. The in connection with this matter have leaked next day, however, the negro hastened to Danl. Doughity, on the road leading from mystery hitherto attending it. If neces. Pool before the Pureau, when the follow-

Upon the same night, but at a later hour of the night, a negro was shot at, but not killed, at the mill of Mr. Robert Norfleet, near the depot at this place, under you charge him with stealing meat. Mr. Pool, the following circumstances : The keeper things have come to a strange pass if a colored of the mill for some time had been missing corn from the mili-house, and on Thursday had better look further than this man's house. night last he (a Mr. Hales) concluded to Perhaps your olfactories will enable you to get on take a stand to watch near by the mill- the right scent. You might come to market and until his object came within ten or fifteen in what is just. vards of him; he fired, no damage doneanother fire and no damage done. The rogue escaped unhurt and is now at large and laughing in his sleeves at Mr. Hales for missing his mark so widely, in consegro of the most abandoned character. W. too well founded, tell the old story of want, when the owd parson asks if any man misery and starvation coming upon the bounded, tell the old story of want, when the owd parson asks if any man misery and starvation coming upon the bounded, the mark is a lusty negro of the most abandoned character. W. ague." Bad shooting, this.

AND AGAIN-A HOMICIDE. by those who had the prisoner in charge.

uncooked ones. St. Thomas ought to be used to earthquakes. She has had 600 of them. Guizot eats a big dinner and walks six year and will understand the politicians like as if he were a marble image. gers to several physicians, who did not re- eternal damnation.—Tarboro' Southerner. miles every day.

learn that Dr. Smith says it was a violerstand, ordered to Raleigh, and the garlent attack of apoplexy. There is no rison to Goldsboro'. Col. Cogswell has Major Corocal Wingerstand British and Johnny Leech were to a guess, if that Yankee faculty be among the widow and Johnny Leech were to a guess, if that Yankee faculty be among the widow and Johnny Leech were to a guess, if that Yankee faculty be among the widow and Johnny Leech were to a guess, if that Yankee faculty be among the widow and Johnny Leech were to a guess, if that Yankee faculty be among the widow and Johnny Leech were to a guess, if that Yankee faculty be among the widow and Johnny Leech were to a guess, if that Yankee faculty be among the widow and Johnny Leech were to a guess, if that Yankee faculty be among the widow and Johnny Leech were to a guess, if that Yankee faculty be among the widow and Johnny Leech were to a guess, if that Yankee faculty be among the widow and Johnny Leech were the ground, we judge, for supposing the attack was brought on by the food he ate.—
It is very likely that the cold had forced the blood to the heart or brain, which caused the attack. Much regret is expressed and orderly, attending honestly and faiththat the young man was not sent to one of fully to their duties, and will leave a good Department, and I herewith communicate illustrative charts. I may have been a bill other." the hotels. We give these particulars name behind them. We learn that a petihoping they may sooner reach his friends, tion has been prepared and numerously to be proper, in view of all the circum- without any rim to my hat. I may have than they could by letter, as his father lives signed, asking that Col. Cogswell and the stances. garrison be retained here. Favetteville News.

THE ROCKY MOUNT FACTORY.-We are we have further particulars in regard to glad to learn that the damage recently sus- in the performance of their proper duties; these.

From the New York World of the 16th. NORTH CAROLINA. Effects of Radical Rule and the Decline in Cotton_W. R. Pool. H. C. Vogell-Freedmen's Bureau, Etc.

for their "L. L," masters whisper into vonching for its correctness. A few weeks ago William R. Pool, Esq., one of the most and duly served on Mr. Pool:

BUREAU OF REFUGEES, FREEDMEN

Office of Ag't Sub. Dist. of Baleigh,

Yours respectfully,

Comment is unnecessary. I will merely

Agent Bureau R. F. and A. L."

H. C. VOGELL,

AND ABANDONED LANDS,

RALEIGH, N. C. Dec. 4.

[From our own Correspondent.] RALEIGH, December 12. The condition of the country, as represents an example of the highest public virtue that human nature is sented by your several correspondents in capable of practicing. The strongest claim because the strongest claim because the presents an example of the and not destined to the fate of that well-kept, but unfortunate hostelry—and its bar said, and at last Mrs. Newt went home to a large sum of money in his pocket. We Alabama, Mississippi, and the other Gulf of Washington to be "first in war, first in boasts no grove of lemons. But Barrows her father, somewhere in Pennsylvania, would suggest to the police to keep their States, is in accordance with my observaing is after them, and we expect soon to spread gloom and despondency, like the in all his illustrious career he scrupulously swallowed a lemon grove without sugar. It she never did, though they never were dipall of night, hangs over the people. Two abstained from violating the legal and conyears of Radical tyranny and negro dominion has done far more to disorganize society When he surrendered his commission to the surrendered his commission to the commission to the surrendered his commission to the commission to t and render men indifferent to the present, Congress, the President of that body spoke I made my way up to the cheerful place town, about ten miles off, and stay there about 71 o'clock, two negroes entered the and reckless of the future than the five long his highest praise in saying, that he had and shook myself like a water-dog, to the sometimes two or three days together, on eration in June next, at the commencement tobacco store of Mr. Ulrich, on Middle years of their unsuccessful warfare. The "always regarded the rights of the civil automatics to the region of the rights of the civil automatics to the rights of the civil automatics to the rights of the rights of the civil automatics to the rights of the r street, and asked for a chalk pipe, and while failure of the cotton crops and the great thorities through all danger and disasters." toasters, who shivered and hugged themthe clerk was getting it, one of them reachniary embarrassment, if not ruin, on nine- acceptance he calmly put the tempter aside. and dreary night. ed across the counter and took a piece of tenths of the planters. There is no emitobacco, weighing about 25 pounds. Mr. gration to the South. Real estate cannot be won the universal admiration of man-Ulrich's elder son, coming in at the time, be sold for half of its value. Trade and kind and left a name which has no rival in and wrappers. "Ain't had such a stinger this made a good deal of talk; and everyand hearing a noise, went around the coun- commerce are almost entirely suspended, the history of the world. ter and asked: "What he meant by keep- and as a necessary consequence, your I am far from saying that General Haning that noise?" One of the negroes im- merchants must not calculate on prompt cock is the only officer of the American mediately darted out of the door. The remittances for goods already bought, or a army who is influenced by the example of young man following, caught him by the revival of trade in the spring. It will re- Washington. Doubtless, thousands of arm, but he managed to escape. Mr. Ul- quire more than one season of abundant them are faithfully devoted to the princiclosed the door and attempted to seize him. all of this sad but truthful picture, for guished honor belongs to him of being the The negro knocked him down and escaped go where you will, you encounter hundreds first officer of high command, south of the of lazy, lawless, vagabond negroes wan- Potomae, since the close of the civil war, who has given utterance to these noble fire. they can devour. Daily reports come from all quarters telling of their robberies, of this people, and ever should be.

MESSAGE OF THE PRESIDENT.

sentiments in the form of a military order. I respectfully suggest to Congress that some public recognition of General Hanarson, and sometimes murders; nor is cock's patriotic conduct is due if not to there any "to molest or make them afraid" him, to the friends of law and justice throughout the country. Of such an act as cally; "what's anything without woman? heels, and then folks knew it was all up his, at such a time, is but fit that the digsonic fraternity of North Carolina, at a cost | their willing ears the Radical morality of | nity should be vindicated and the virtue plundering, and if needs be, murdering proclaimed, so that its value as an example their "rebel oppressors," while the F. B., | may not be lost to the nation.

Andrew Johnson. without the trouble of investigation, often Washington, D. C., Dec. 18, 1867. We print, as a proper accompaniment bolic acts. While your correspondent could enumerate many cases in support of to the Message of the President, the folthe above charge, he will only cite one, lowing order :

HEADO'RS FIFTH MILITARY DISTRICT, NEW ORLEANS, LA., Nov. 29, 1867. respectable citizens of this county, had his GENERAL ORDERS

cotton gin, with his cotton crop, burned by I. In accordance with General Orders No. 81. some sable desperadoes. Soon after twelve Headquarters of the Army, Adjutant General's or fifteen of his fattened hogs mysteriously Office, Washington. D. C., August 27th, 1867, disappeared, and still more recently several Major Gen ral W. S. Hancock hereby assumes of his already reduced stock of hogs "came command of the Fifth Military District, and of the Department composed of the States of Louisiana up missing." Provoked and exasperated and Texas. article, went to the door and opened it; as by these repeated depredations, he called II. The General Connuanding is gratified to soon as the door was opened, instead of on several of his neighbors to aid him in learn that peace and quiet reign in this Depart-and, accompanied by a civil magistrate, be regards the maintenance of the civil authorities doubt fortunate man, which felled him to the they soon discovered where one or more of in the faithful execution of the laws, as the most efficient, under existing circumstances. In war it is indispensable to repel force by force, and overthrow and destroy opposition to Jawful western part of the State. He is looking which caused the retreat of the assassin, they were led to a cabin not far distant, and overthrow and destroy opposition to dawning mean to near your story, bonny, some one passed by the premises, they were led to a cabin not far distant, and overthrow and destroy opposition to dawning mean to near your story, bonny, some one passed by the premises, they were led to a cabin not far distant, and overthrow and destroy opposition to dawning mean to near your story, bonny, some one passed by the premises, they were led to a cabin not far distant, and overthrow and destroy opposition to dawning mean to near your story, bonny, some one passed by the premises, they were led to a cabin not far distant, and overthrow and destroy opposition to dawning mean to near your story, bonny, some one passed by the premises, and overthrow and destroy opposition to dawning mean to near your story, bonny, some one passed by the premises, and overthrow and destroy opposition to dawning mean to near your story, bonny, so the premises, and overthrow and destroy opposition to dawning mean to near your story, bonny, and overthrow and destroy opposition to dawning mean to near your story, but the premises, and overthrow and destroy opposition to dawning mean to near your story, but the premises, and the premises of the prem and no doubt saved the life and the money occupied by an old negro wench and her been overthrown, and peace established, and the of the unfortunate victim. There is yet no son, known by the name of Albert Hincivil authorities are ready and willing to perform

> he stated that he had purchased it from a Corpus, the liberty of the press, the freedom of myself." wagon on the public highway-but there speech, and the natural rights of persons and the being other abundant proof to justify his rights of property must be preserved. ing insulting order was immediately issued > > Should there be violations of existing laws in love with her. which are not inquired into by the civil magistrates, or should failures in the administration of justice by the courts be complained of, the cases told him; 'but look o' the string o' lovers will be reported to these Headquarters, when she's had since Robinson died! Twenty if Glentle and low; an excellent thing in woman," such orders will be made as may be deemed ne- there's one, an' you know it.'

man cannot buy meat from a wagon in the road While the General thus indicates his purpose t without incurring the charge of stealing. You to understand that armed insurrection or forcible | Donny. resistance to the law will be instantly suppressed By command of Major General W. S. HANCOCK.

W. G. MITCHELL, B'vt Lient. Coi., Act'g Ass't Adj't General. Ass't Adi't General.

Misery in the South.

quence of having upon him at the time, R. Pool, a gray headed old gentleman, long people with the coming winter. Naturally knowed aught agin' the marryin', up steps what our old hunters would call a "Buck a director in the bank of the State and for the overwhelming proportion of distress Johnny Leech, a young chap from Manmany years the presiding officer of the will fall upon the negroes, not only because chester, an forbids the bans, an' says th' other property, was destroyed by fire last County Court, and R. C. Vogell, United they are the landless and houseless race, widow had promised to tackle with him.' States Army Surgeon, pseudo Baptist but because they have been less provident On Monday night last, a man by the name preacher, negro radical of the Sumner type even, so far as was possible, than the of J. R. Wells residing near Rocky Mount and the dignified "Agent Bureau R. F. & whites have. They have depended upon in this county, was committed to jail for A. L.;" and this is the courtesy and justice the delusive promises of their Radical leadkilling one Joshua Roberson. We have often bestowed on the best white men of ers that they would be provided for by said give the particulars of the sad case of this not all the details of this unfortunate af- the country—the sympathy and protection Congress—that land, houses and crops young man, obtained from Mr. Leach, the fair—but we are indebted to Mr. Williams often lavished on the worst black scoun- should be divided, and they have the lion's Vice-President of the Institution for the Dumb and the Blind who after the jailor of this county for the following drels in the land, by the agents and offiparticulars of the affair, as narrated to him cers of "the best government in the world." not only been indifferent to labor, but have wull have her. Permit me to ask how long should a spurned it. Much of the responsibility for as such had fallen from the faith. It is this which "Talbot" means when he calls her a "miscreant," and not what we should intend by the name.

It seems that Wells and Roberson had been to Rocky Mount on the day of the homicide—and left there together on their intend by the name.

Permit me to ask now long should a spurned it. Much of the responsibility for this lies at the door of those Radical cambets the lies at the door of those Radical cambets the lies at the door of those Radical cambets the lies at the door of those Radical cambets the lies at the door of those Radical cambets the lies at the door of those Radical cambets the lies at the door of those Radical cambets the lies at the door of those Radical cambets the lies at the door of the lies at the door of the lies at the door of those Radical cambets the lies at the lies at the lies at the lies at way home—they were overtaken by a fellow Vogell, "Agent Bureau R. F. & A. ern States early in the season making dred in the same fix. To the dule wi'yer five hundred and twenty-eight English was a student at Trinity College. His friend, who was driving a horse in a small L."—and the cry goes up from hundreds of political harangues. Hundreds of men of health was feeble and he determined to wagon; they were invited to take a seat; thousands in all this southern land, as the leave for his home at the close of the sea. leave for his home at the close of the sest they did so, Roberson taking a seat in front voice of one man, how long will their breth-Radical pay; and while the negroes should business! sion. He left the College, we presume, on with the driver and Wells taking one in ren of the North submit to paying millions have been plowing and planting they were Friday evening last and nothing occurred the rear—they had not gone far before of taxes (see Grant's reports) to be squan- going over the country from court house until his arrival on the cars at the Hills- Roberson missed three plugs of tobacco dered in building negro churches and to court house, following the speakers, boro' station. A gentleman, who sat near from his pocket, which he had purchased school houses, and running the Freedmen's spending what money they could gather on he'd swallowed fire and powther, an' were him, saw him purchase a snack—a biscuit that day—whereupon Roberson accused Bureau, thus pampering and supporting the railroads, and enjoying generally a goin' to brast like they say Vesnvius do; and a piece of fowl-which he commenced Wells of stealing the tobacco; an alterca- hundreds of Vogell's whose sole mission political jubilee. Hence, not one in fifty but afore he could open his mouth to speak, eating. About the time he had eaten tion ensued—Roberson received from Wells it is to make money, lord it over the white made provision for the winter; and now what does the wummun?

better, -New York Herald.

From the Public Spirit. THE MAN WHO MARRIED A MAN.

MINISTRATION OF AFFAIRS AT NEW OR-I have cultivated acquaintance, in the him brast out, for the docther were a facourse of a life which has in it much itine- mous hot temper; but he just picked up racy, with many country hotels. What my his hat an' went out of church with his no effect, until he died on Sunday. We well, Commandant of the Post, is, we un- Gentlemen of the Benate and of the House itinerating guise has been does not matter, mouth fast shut. been a gentleman of wealth and leisure. I "an' now if yo'n willin', I'd like to hear o' stances.

It will be perceived that General Haucock announces that he will make the law the rule of his conduct; that he will uphold the courts and other civil authorities hold the courts and other civil authorities.

It will be perceived that General Haucock announces that he will make the law box of cheap jewelry. I may have been a clown to a traveling circus. Guessing is a beautiful exercise. I have been none of these to hear o' All in due time, "said Mr. Smith; "that was a pretty story, and I'd like to hear another. That young man by your side these the murder on Wednesday night. It appears from his statement that there were pears from his statement that there were pears from his attement that there were pears from his attement that there were pears from his attement that the damage recently sustained at the Factory of Mr. Battle will be and that he will use his military power on house of mine host Barrows, with my hair repaired in a few days and enable the energiance of their proper duties; and that he will use his military power on house of mine host Barrows, with my hair repaired in a few days and enable the energiance of their proper duties; and that he will use his military power on house of mine host Barrows, with my hair repaired in a few days and enable the energian force of their proper duties; and that he will use his military power on house of mine host Barrows, with my hair repaired in a few days and enable the energian force of their proper duties; and that he will use his military power on house of mine host Barrows, with my hair repaired in a few days and enable the energian force of their proper duties; and that he will use his military power on house of mine host Barrows, with my hair force of the peace and enforce the peace and enforce the force of the peace and enforce the peace and enfor pears from his statement that there were two or three ladies in the house at the two or three ladies in the house at the demands made upon him.

If the peace and entorce the peace and entorce the frozen stiff about my ears, and moustache an icicle in color and feel. It was bitter demands made upon him. The entire Eastern portion of the State privilege of the writ of habeas corpus shall cold out of doors, but there was a bright mother knew some of the parties." was shot as he opened the door with a shot rely in a great measure upon this Factory not be crushed out or trodden under foot. fire burning in a broad old-fashioned fire "A credit mark for you, my lad, for gun, instead of a pistol as we stated yester-day, and the boy shot the negro before he day, and the boy shot the negro before he American liberty are still the inheritance ruddy blaze.

The reader, for whose superior powers of 'It was in Massachusetts this occurred, When a great soldier, with unrestricted mind I have a profound respect, is also at sir, where mother was born, in the village power in his hands to oppress his fellow- liberty to guess where Barrow's hotel is or of Turkey Neck—you may have heard of men, voluntarily foregoes the chance of was; but as it is of no kind of importance, it. There was Mr. Newt there, a merchant gratifying his selfish ambition and devotes perhaps it may be as well not to dwell of considerable wealth, who lived unhappy himself to the duty of building up the lib- on the subject. It is an old stone building with his wife. She was a high-tempered berties and strengtening the laws of his country, he presents an example of the laws of th men," is founded on the great fact, that his face looked sour enough to have just to her husband so long as he lived; and was a good natured face, too, in the ordin- vorced according to law. Jealously was at

"Coolish out, Mr. Weeb," said Bar- year later he brought her home with him, afore this year-plays the dickens with my body wondered what Mrs. Newt would do 'A party to-night, Barrows?" said I.

had married Mrs. Goss; and of course it "Yes, was to have been, but the dancers was bigamy. But time went on, and Mrs. didn't come. Sleighings's thin, ye know, Newt, the original, never disturbed him. and they wouldn't come in wagons on sich rich, Jr., then went into the store, and "seed time and harvest" to repair the ples for which the men of the Revolution a night. I'm out of pocket a pretty figure Mr. Newt died, and left a pair of widows. And the lemon grove stood confessed.

"Nobody come, eh?" said I, as I parted Newt, as everybody called her-thought my coat tails and turned by back to the she was in clover, for the property was ve-"Oh, yes," said Barrows, contemptu- man, and used to dress so richly that she ously pointing to the shin-toasters, "and looked like a queen. every man of 'em without a woman. And what's a ball without women? "Ah, sure enough?" said I philosophi- first with a Philadelphia lawyer at her

Women are our solace in misfortune, our with the Goss Newt. So it was. The orijoy in prosperity-in short, the charm of ginal Mrs. Newt got possession of her late this unhappy vale of tears, Barrows, and husband's property for herself and son, no dancing party can be said to be com- and of course the Goss Newt was turned plete without them-except among the out of house and home. Indians. If I ever marry, I shall marry a "Well, sir, what do you suppose that woman.'

"Haw, haw, haw!" road the Lancashire nostler, who sat in the corner, and who thus testified the delight of an appreciahome? Not she; she just brought suit tive mind at my brilliant wit. "Woy, you'd have to marry a wummun if you mar-to her deceased husband as housekeeper, laying her figures at $2,000 per annum.

ried at all. "I knew a man once," said a queerlooking customer, who sat smoking a very high rate of salary for a housekeeper, but long pipe, solemnly, "who married a at the same time they didn't want to oust

The toasters started. "Tell us about that," said the Lancashire man. "We'm been tellin' stories afore you come in, and it was my turn next. her lawyer got the most of that. dition of things. As a means to this great end But you'n tell a better nor I, I make no said the man of the pipe. "But first I know myself that it is a true one. Curious cases get into the courts sometimes." mean to hear your story, Donny; so go man who married the man became gene-The Lancashire man was coy, but being ral, and Mr. Smith proceeded to gratify it. urged, finally proceeded You see, this story that I've got in my was a minister; he married a man-to a woman."- Wirt Sikes. ed in our town when I was a young man the matter out and bring the scoundrel or brought it home a night or two previous; are the lawful inheritance of this people, and ever o' twenty, and it were the talk o' the town "The docther coorted a widor in our Free institutions, while they are essential to the town, her name were Robinson, and she prosperity and happiness of the people, always were a jolly wench, if I say it to you. She conventionalities, to talk slang, be "knowraish the strongest inducements to peace and were the last wammun for such as the doosuch ideas may be assured she is mistaken. jadgment of the regular civil tribunals, and those self what time I was sick with fayver, and Shakspeare, who understood human charribunals will be supported in their lawful juris- he docthered me. But he minded not me, of course not he. He were up to his ears "She's a gradely wench, docther, I which was

"'Poh!" said the docther, 'I'll take care teristics of a woman who is loved.

espect the liberties of the people, he wishes all o' her lovers for her. Howld yer tongue, words, docther, someday,' says I. " The day they went to church half the lars. town was there to see the weddin'. I was 2d Lieut., 37th Inf't, B'vt 1st Lieut. U. S. A. Act'g there mysel'. The widow was lookin' gradely fine in her bran new gown what ment by the Union Pacific Railway. A the docther baught wi' his own money, and train followed up a herd and the fireman Reports from the South, no doubt but the docther he looked like a boy wi' a new shot and killed a cow. The train was then shillin'. When they'd gettin' to the word stopped and the game bagged.

"Any one could see that the docther was awfully pottert about it, and mad

"'What's that dost say, young man?"
"'I say,' said Johnny Leach, as bold as

"At that the docther begun to fix his for Gen. Hancock.

" That wull I not,' said Johnny Leech 'Dunno the mention it.'

"Doother went red in the face, like as if Grouse are said to be disappearing—the year round, the negroes are without food or "Aye, he's right." the means of getting it. Sharp misery "An, wi' that she walks over to Johnny will knaw them to the bone, and those Leach's side, and has a holt on his arm, an' whom the Freedmen's Bureau can keep marches out of the church door with him, alive will, maybe, be somewhat wiser next while docther stands there starin' after her

Soft and gentle, these are the true charac-A noble Lord, who sits in the British

"Nobbut ye'll wish ye'd minded my Parliament, has been sued in an English county court for a butchers bill of forty dol-

Buffalo hunting by rail is the last achieve-

The Masonic Hall at Honeoye Falls, New

The New York Tribune states that John enough to bite a pike in two, nobbut he Mitchell will probably be elected President

It is stated that several Western Demo-

The heaviest woman in Paris, Elizabeth Veromque, has just died. She weighed

The Postmaster General asks Congress for an appropriation of $22,827,500, for expenses for the year ending June, 30,

General Early is cultivating the art of peace on the old battle-field of Lundy's

MARRIED.

On Thursday, 19th instant, by Rev. Mr. Watson, Rector of St. James' Church, Wilmington, N. C., D. CAMERON WADDELL, Esq., to MARY M. WRIGHT, daughter of the late Joshua G. Wright,

On the 18th inst., in Brunswick county, by Rev. C. Shaw, Mr. WM. J. COOK, of this county, to Miss ELIZABETH SIKES, daughter of John M. "Well, now he were in a grandley fix, to Sikes, Esq.